FISHING HOTELS IN SCOTLAND

(ALPHABETICALLY ARRANGED)

Altnacealgach Hotel, Sutherlandshire, has 9 single bedrooms and 7 double. Weekly tariff is £5 10s.; chauffeurs, £3 10s. This hotel claims to have the best fishing in Scotland on lochs and streams. The average basket for a reasonably good angler is about 16 lb. per day, the trouts weighing 3 to the lb. It is quite common to get trouts with fly up to 9 and 10 lb. weight. During season 1932 1 trout 4 lb., 1 7 lb., and 1  $9\frac{1}{4}$  lb. were caught. Last year's record for each month was as follows:—May (9 days), 438 trouts weighing 166 lb.; June (25 days), 1788, 675 lb.; July (24 days), 1488, 584 lb.; August (26 days), 1276, 408 lb.; September (11 days), 708, 259 lb. Five lochs available with boats and several hill lochs with no boats. Charge for ghillie, 10s. per day. Garage for 7 private cars. Best fishing months from May till September. Most direct route, Inverness to Bonar Bridge. Nearest railway, Invershin, 26 miles distant. Bus passes door of hotel once daily.
